New York, New York University, Bobst Library, Special Collections, Fragment 086

Description: f. 1, lower portion - This collection of English binding fragments was given to NYU by Homer Lewis Bartlett (1858-1940), who graduated in 1884 from NYU with a degree in Science and Civil Engineering; he married Clarice Sherman Noble in 1892; they had five children; by 1902, he was second vice-president of the Eastern District Savings Bank. De Ricci states that the collection (of 101 fragments with 70 others laid into the album) was given to NYU in 1884 (the same year in which Homer L. Bartlett graduated). - De Ricci, p. 1346

Text 1: f. 1r-v, lower portion

Title: Astrological material?

Language(s): Latin

Incipit: propter stellate quasi motus orbis supernum et volvitur annus viii mille quia omnes annos continet

Notes: Cropping of one column, pasted-on paper on the reverse, very high number of abbreviations make this text very hard to read; the incipit field simply inserts a piece of text from the uncropped column and from the unpapered side.
